

What is GIS? Poster Competition

“What is GIS?” is a poster competition that aims to explain what Geographic Information Systems (GIS) are about and how they can be used in various areas of our life.

Who can participate?

Open to all undergraduate students, individuals or teams, of public and private universities in Egypt, who are interested in GIS.

How do I participate?

Prepare a poster of maximum 70x100 cm, explaining what Geographic Information Systems (GIS) are about and what they can be used for. The poster should contain at least one text and one illustration; you can write the texts in English, Arabic or French. If you use texts or illustrations by others, you should provide an exact indication of the source, whether it is a book, a magazine, or a website.

How do I submit my presentation?

Please submit your poster to one of the contacts below. The deadline for the submission is Sunday, 12 December 2010.
